

Leading Oncology Social Worker Launches Expanded Practice and Support Group

Candice Tummillo, MSW, LCSW-C, OCW-C Deepens Commitment to Cancer, Chronic Illness & Grief Support

New York City, New York Jul 31, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Candice Tummillo, MSW, LCSW-C, OCW-C, a certified oncology social worker and seasoned clinical practitioner, is pleased to expand her therapeutic offerings at her private practice. With over a decade of professional experience and master's training from the University of Pennsylvania, Candice continues to provide expert, compassionate support to adults navigating cancer diagnoses, chronic illness, anxiety, depression, grief & loss, and caregiver support.

In addition to individual therapy, Candice invites the community to participate in her Newly Diagnosed Cancer Support Group, which meets monthly on the second Wednesday from 6–7 PM. The group offers a safe, nurturing environment to process cancer-specific emotional challenges and foster mutual support.

Candice utilizes cognitive and dialectical behavioral therapies in her practice, approaches proven effective in reshaping negative thought patterns and fostering emotional resilience. She emphasizes a space of curiosity, kindness, and trust to support healing. Candice is in-network with major insurers, including Aetna, BCBS, Cigna, UnitedHealthcare, and others, and offers both in-person and telehealth sessions. Her services include sliding scale options and complimentary 15-minute consultations.

Her professional background includes significant roles in oncology-focused positions in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Maryland. She has led psychosocial programs and developed mental health interventions for patients and caregivers, reinforcing her dedication to holistic, patient-centered care.
