Michael Travis: Leading Realtor® in Waterfront Properties Across New Hampshire and Maine

New York City, New York Jul 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Michael Travis, an esteemed Realtor® with Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Verani Realty, has established himself as a premier expert in waterfront properties throughout the breathtaking Lakes Region and throughout New Hampshire. He collects lakes. With licenses in both New Hampshire and Maine, along with a commercial license as a member of NH CIBOR, NECPE, and Verani Commercial, he possesses a comprehensive understanding of residential, land, investment, and commercial real estate. Notably, Travis has earned recognition for his exceptional performance in successfully marketing and selling more properties on different lakes than any other agent in the state.

He also embarked on utilizing all of his experiences to open the acclaimed My Thai Bistros restaurant in Rochester NH with his Thai wife and Thai business partner in December 2024.

Before embarking on his real estate career in 2004, Travis cultivated a distinguished background as an award-winning art and creative director in New York City and Boston, primarily with advertising icon Jerry Della Femina. Over three decades, he developed innovative campaigns for more than 475 clients across various industries, from fashion, travel, airlines, as well as campaigns with the US Olympic swim team, business, political, and music moguls, including Kenny G, LL Cool J, President Bush and Carter, and General Schwarzkopf. This extensive experience in design, photography, and advertising equips him with the skills necessary to create captivating marketing strategies that enhance property visibility and attract prospective buyers. Utilizing cutting-edge tools like drone imaging, video production, and digital books and social media, Travis ensures that each listing is showcased to its fullest potential.

Travis's real estate practice is built on a foundation of honesty, integrity, cooperation, and a dedication to personalized service. He takes pride in his ability to foster strong relationships with clients, guiding them through the complexities, bringing "Real Life Experience to the Real Estate Experience" from negotiation to closing and after. His commitment to understanding each client's unique needs enables him to represent their best interests effectively, ensuring a smooth and successful transaction.

Much of his business is by referrals, including from agents from other companies. He believes what is good for the client is always good for the transaction. Working under the reputable Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Verani Realty, Travis combines global reach with local expertise, providing clients with unparalleled marketing support and resources throughout their real estate journey. His passion for helping clients find their dream homes or investment properties reflects in his tailored approach, making him a trusted partner in the Lakes Region real estate market.

For those seeking an experienced Realtor® who specializes in waterfront properties and is dedicated to delivering exceptional results, Michael Travis stands out as the ideal choice. His unique blend of creative marketing acumen and real estate expertise positions him as a leader in the industry, ready to assist clients in navigating the vibrant Lakes Region market.
