Massachusetts, Jul 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Rising music artist and dynamic persona Morgen has come up with a brand new track that showcases the artist's musical and storytelling abilities. Better known as MorgensLifeLens, the artist is revered among the listeners for her unique, sublime, and emotionally engaging tracks, and 'Wherever You Go' is the greatest example of that. This latest song has been released under the label of MorgensLife Productions in June this year. Morgen's engaging storytelling and a magical voice to depict it help to connect with all kinds of music lovers with different tastes for music.

Hailing from Massachusetts, USA, Morgen is a highly talented and creative person who cultivated herself through various art forms. She is not just an amazing music artist but also a vlogger for lifestyle videos that can make people happy. Although her musical creations are reaching the ears of the global fans, Morgen suffers from a rare form of deafness called Amusia. However, that could not break her indomitable spirit to create original music. Despite all the challenges, she kept advancing on her musical journey, and the latest song, 'Wherever You Go', is the biggest proof of her progress. Emotionally written and deftly produced with a soft musical arrangement, the song is buzzing among the fans right now.

Morgen's musical projects consist of a deep and intriguing subject matter that is relevant and depicts different aspects of modern life. Starting from social media platforms vs beauty standards, mental health, domestic violence, to eating disorders, social standards, and discrimination, the artist mainly works with sensitive sides of life to offer listeners a heavy dose of optimism and positivity to move on. Being the Beethoven of the modern world, she is looking forward to releasing more songs in the coming days that could speak of her and also others, sharing a sense of community. Morgen Horner, aka MorgensLifeLens, can dabble among pop, punk, and almost any genre, and she has already dropped more than 10 singles. She recently appeared in a podcast called The Love Outlaw Podcast, where she revealed her musical journey.
