

North African Producer Nedo X Opens Doors for Global Collaborations with a Distinctive Sound

More than just a beatmaker, Nedo X is a passionate music producer rooted in Hip-Hop culture but driven by a deep love for sound creation across genres.

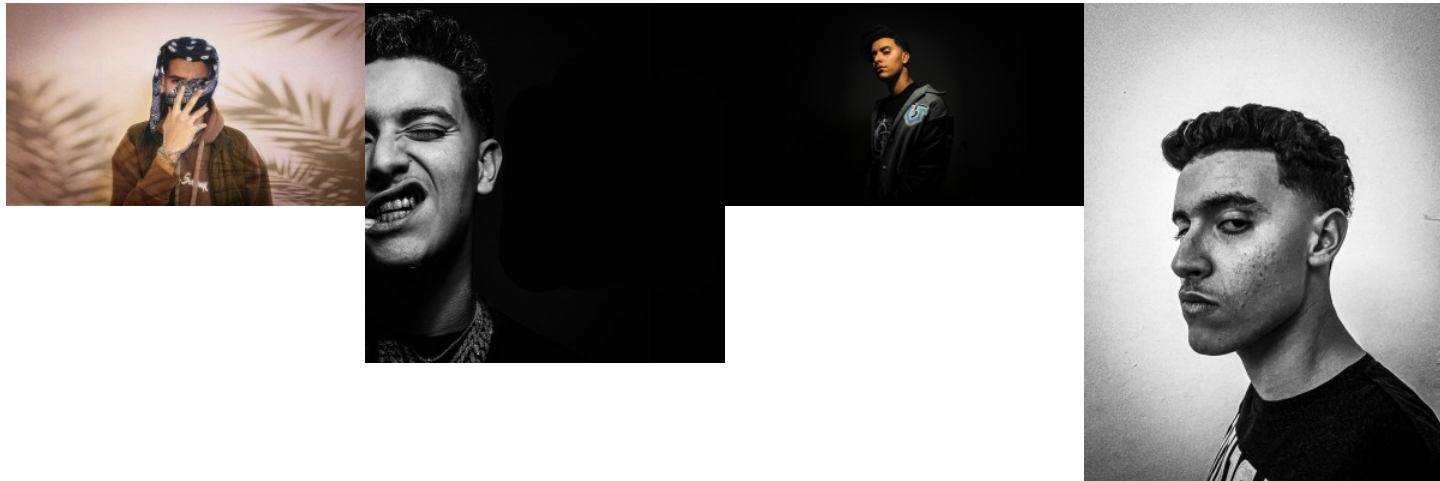

ad-Dar-al-Bayda, Casablanca Jul 7, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Emerging from the culturally rich music scene of North Africa, Nedo X (real name Mohamed Ali Azzi) is redefining what it means to be an independent producer in the global age. Since beginning his musical journey in 2019, the Moroccan-born composer and beatmaker has developed a genre-defying sound rooted in hip-hop, yet deeply influenced by Afro rhythms, cinematic melodies, and emotional depth. His music blends authenticity with innovation, connecting cultures through sound.

Nedo X gained widespread attention with his breakout track Scorpion, which captivated listeners with its layered production and bold emotional energy. The single marked a turning point in his career, earning him critical recognition and building a loyal international fanbase. Since then, his music has amassed over 5 million total streams and more than 18 million YouTube views, reflecting a fast-growing presence that stretches far beyond borders.

His global impact is further demonstrated by his chart success — having landed on the iTunes charts in both Brazil and India, two of the world's most competitive music markets. His work has also been featured on international radio stations and playlists, reinforcing his credibility as a producer capable of resonating with diverse audiences.

Most recently, Nedo X announced his upcoming EP titled Fountains, a bold artistic statement set for release on July 31, 2025. The project begins with a haunting Moroccan oud melody, flows into African-inspired Afro beats, and ends with a powerful, rhythmic Afro track — showcasing his range and vision as a producer. Fountains represents his most important body of work to date, and a clear step forward in his mission to craft boundary-pushing music with emotional weight.

Looking ahead, Nedo X is actively opening his creative space for global collaborations — welcoming vocalists, producers, instrumentalists, and creatives who share his passion for genre-blending sound and emotional storytelling. More than a producer, he is a connector — building bridges between North Africa and the world, one track at a time.

Media Contact

PHS

@gmail.com

1254625879

Street Row, ccct

Source : PHS Records

See on IssueWire