Patricia Geoghegan: Your Trusted Associate Real Estate Broker in Westchester County

New York City, New York Jul 21, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Patricia Geoghegan, an esteemed

Associate Real Estate Broker with more than 25 years of experience, proudly continues to serve the vibrant Sound Shore area of Westchester County. Renowned for her extensive market knowledge and exceptional negotiating skills, Patricia is dedicated to ensuring that each client's real estate journey—whether buying or selling—is a seamless and rewarding experience.

With her base in Rye, New York, Patricia holds an active real estate license and is a distinguished Platinum Award-winning member of Houlihan Lawrence and the Westchester County Board of Realtors. Her commitment to excellence is further exemplified by her designation as an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), which underscores her dedication to advocating for her clients throughout the buying process.

Patricia has built a solid reputation as a relocation specialist, offering unparalleled personal and professional service to clients transitioning to and from the New York Metropolitan area. Her clients can expect clarity, efficiency, and confidence at every stage of their real estate transactions, whether they are moving across the street or the globe.

In a new chapter of her career, Patricia has teamed up with her daughter, Kendra Moran, to form a dynamic real estate partnership known as Pat & Kendra. This collaboration enhances their ability to provide a comprehensive, client-centered approach to real estate, combining strategic market insights with a deep-rooted understanding of the Rye community. Together, they are committed to delivering a seamless experience, from marketing a property to helping new residents settle into their new homes.

Patricia's success is deeply rooted in her integrity and client-first philosophy, which she shares with Kendra. Their trusted partnership enables them to navigate the complexities of the real estate market with ease, ensuring that their clients receive the highest level of care and attention.

Outside of her professional pursuits, Patricia is actively involved in the Rye community, having held various leadership roles, including Chair of the Rye Golf Club Commission, and participating in school, health, and charitable organizations.

When she's not working, Patricia enjoys stand-up comedy, traveling, cooking, golfing, and cherishing moments with her grandchildren.

With a commitment to excellence and a passion for real estate, Patricia Geoghegan and Kendra Moran are ready to guide clients through every step of their real estate journey.
