

Peter Paul Hennis, AGNP: A Dedicated Nurse Practitioner Making Strides in Rheumatology Care in Arizona

A Compassionate Expert in Autoimmune Disease Management Serving Patients in Gilbert and Casa Grande Clinics

New York City, New York Jul 1, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Peter Paul Hennis, AGNP, an accredited Nurse Practitioner recognized by the American College of Rheumatology, is proud to announce his practice at Summit Rheumatology, which operates from both the Gilbert Rheumatology Clinic and Casa Grande Rheumatology Clinic. With a strong commitment to providing exceptional patient care, Peter specializes in the treatment and management of gout, connective tissue diseases, osteoporosis, and a range of other rheumatic conditions.

Peter's holistic approach to treatment emphasizes the importance of respect and dignity in patient relationships. He believes that effective healthcare transcends medical interventions; it requires a partnership built on trust, empathy, and open communication. "My ultimate goal is to help patients regain their functionality and empower them to manage their autoimmune diseases through informed lifestyle changes," said Peter. His focus on patient education is a cornerstone of his practice, ensuring that individuals feel supported and knowledgeable about their health journeys.

Peter earned his Degree from the prestigious Case Western Reserve University, where he developed a strong foundation in nursing and patient care. His clinical experience spans the Medical and Neurological Intensive Care Units, equipping him with the skills needed to address complex health issues with confidence and expertise. As an active member of the American College of Rheumatology, the American Nurses Association, and the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, Peter remains at the forefront of advancements in rheumatology and nursing practice.

Attributing his success to hard work and a deep-seated faith, Peter believes that his dedication to his patients and unwavering commitment to their well-being are reflective of his values. "I am here to serve my patients, to listen to their concerns, and to work together in finding the best path forward for their health," he remarked.

Summit Rheumatology is excited to have Peter Paul Hennis on their team, bringing his expertise and compassionate care to the communities of Gilbert and Casa Grande. Patients seeking comprehensive rheumatological care can schedule an appointment to experience Peter's patient-centered approach firsthand.
