

Pharaoh moves JBGODS into an office and out of the country

“Thank you to all of the listeners in France for streaming JBGODS music, merci beaucoup.” - Pharaoh

Chicago, Illinois Jul 26, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Pharaoh is working obsessively on his expansion project for JBGODS. He believes a global reach will do more for the company and better serve the customer. Pharaoh has his eyes fixed on Paris, France. He explains that his reason for choosing Paris is that it's interesting. JBGODS having a corporate office in Paris is an interesting thing to explore.

As the team builds, JBGODS will accept business professionals who are looking to explore internships with the company in Chicago and in Paris. Interns are expected to give 6 hours per week to the company which can be divided into two hour work sessions or combined into 4 or 6 hour work sessions. At the moment, JBGODS is interested in an admin clerk, a photographer and one writer. Interested parties may email skate@jbgods.com with resumés and appropriate information.

JBGODS headquarters is now located at 200 S Wacker Drive. Visitors must have a plan for parking or commuting as it is an extremely busy area. The building lobby has its own Starbucks and there are plenty of surrounding places to go to for food. Pharaoh is still deciding whether the JBGODS Rose Awards will be held at headquarters or another location. He wants to be considerate to guests with the issue of parking. Check out JBGODS on Google Maps and watch for location information and updates to the address.

Skaters, videographers and skate professionals, watch your inbox. Sooner or later, Pharaoh will give you an offer. But, be warned. Pharaoh doesn't offer a second time after you refuse the first. Consider the opportunity ahead of time. Decide now if you want to work with the Gods. Be ready when opportunity comes. As the GodKing Pharaoh often reminds us, Gods got it. Take care Chicago.
