

Phoenix AZ Business Broker Launches New Website

Scottsdale, Arizona Jul 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Business owners across the Phoenix metro area now have a new online resource when it comes to selling their business. Ray Haiber, a professional business broker with West USA Realty that has over 25 years of experience, has officially launched PhoenixBizBroker.com, a new website dedicated to helping small business owners navigate the sale process with confidence and confidentiality.

Ray specializes in helping well established Arizona business owners successfully list and sell their businesses for maximum value while at the same time maintaining the confidential nature of the sale. His services include a free, no-obligation consultation and a complimentary business valuation to help sellers understand what their business is worth in today's market. Its never too early to start planning your exit strategy. Whether you're planning your exit strategy or ready to sell now, Ray provides the local expertise and one-on-one guidance needed to achieve a successful outcome.

The new website also features helpful blog posts, updated business listings, future business listings, and free and actionable tips for maximizing your sale price—making it a valuable resource for owners looking to plan ahead and make informed decisions when they are ready to move forward.
