

Shoot In China Expands Video Production Support for International Clients in China

Shanghai-based production house offers turnkey video, film, and commercial production support across China.

Shanghai, China Jul 24, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Shoot In China, a leading video production company based in Shanghai, is expanding its production support services for international clients filming in China. With over a decade of experience and more than 1600 successful projects, the company continues to provide bilingual producers, skilled camera crews, and logistics support across major cities including Beijing, Shenzhen, Guangzhou, Chengdu, and Chongqing.

From corporate films and documentaries to branded content and TV commercials, Shoot In China supports every stage of production—from location scouting and permitting to gear rental and post-production coordination. The company's bilingual crew bridges the gap between Western production standards and local execution, ensuring smooth communication and professional results.

"Filming in China can be complex, but we make it easy," says Matt Clarke, co-founder of Shoot In China. "We've helped clients from BBC, National Geographic, Airbnb, and many more achieve their creative goals here in China."

Clients can access services including:

- Camera crew hire (cinematographers, camera operators, assistants)
- Equipment rental (ARRI, RED, Sony, Aputure, etc.)
- Fixer services and location permits
- Casting and translation
- Remote shoot coordination

Whether you're filming a single interview or a nationwide campaign, Shoot In China delivers scalable support tailored to each project.
