Alwar, Rajasthan Jul 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Skillwaala has announced the launch of its Premier Digital Marketing Institute in Alwar. Skillwaala is a Jaipur-based organisation that offers the best courses in digital marketing, content writing, web development, graphic design, video editing, and more.

Skillwaala, a Jaipur-based skill-focused organization, is proud to announce the launch of its Premier Digital Marketing Institute in Alwar, expanding its mission to empower youth with digital skills. SkillWaala offers high-quality education through both offline and online modes. It has already made its mark in Jaipur and is now bringing its expertise to Alwar.

The institute will start with the AI Advanced Digital Marketing Course on 21 July 2025. This certificate course is designed for both students and working professionals with two batch timings: 10 AM to 12 PM and 4 PM to 6 PM.

While similar courses in other institutes range from ₹40,000 to ₹60,000, SkillWaala is making digital education affordable and accessible by offering this advanced marketing course for just ₹14,999. Students will receive 2 hours of daily learning, 1 hour of theoretical, and 1 hour of practical training.

In this 40-day course, participants will be guided by industry experts from BR Softech, an IT company that supports SkillWaala's free education initiative. Vishwas Shekhawat Sir will be mentoring the students based on his experience as a Meta Ads & Google Ads certified Guru and CXL certified marketer with experience managing over ₹20 crore in global ad spend.

During the course, students will gain practical learning experience by working on real-world projects and will receive industry insights as they progress from beginner to advanced levels. With the successful launch of this AI Advanced Digital Marketing Course in Alwar, SkillWaala plans to introduce more career-focused courses in Alwar in fields such as content writing, graphic design, video editing, web development and Animation.

With the successful completion of previous Digital Marketing programs at Lord's University, Skillwaala looks forward to launching new and comprehensive courses in collaboration with the university. The goal is to create a generation of SkillWaala who are ready to meet the demands of the modern workforce.

SkillWaala's entry in Alwar marks a major step in promoting digital education in smaller cities, ensuring that no aspiring learner is left behind.

The new setup of Skillwaala in Alwar is on the First Floor, OM DEEP COMPLEX, 60 Feet Road, Azad Nagar, New Daudpur, Alwar, 301001, for students to take offline classes.
