

Streets of Punjab Delivers Authentic Indian Flavours to Beaconsfield Locals

Castle Hill, Victoria Jul 24, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Craving a proper curry or fresh handmade sweets? Streets of Punjab, located in the heart of Beaconsfield, is fast becoming the go-to destination for lovers of authentic Indian cuisine.

Bringing the rich and bold flavours of North India to Melbourne's south-east, Streets of Punjab blends traditional recipes, warm hospitality, and modern comfort to create an unforgettable dining experience.

From creamy Butter Chicken and smoky Tandoori platters to street-style Amritsari Kulchas and freshly made mithai (Indian sweets), every dish is a celebration of Punjabi culture and taste.

"Our goal is to serve real Indian food that reminds people of home – whether they grew up in Punjab or simply love bold, delicious flavours," says the Streets of Punjab team.

Why Beaconsfield Locals Love Streets of Punjab:

- Authentic North Indian flavours – using traditional spices & recipes
- Freshly made naan & curries – cooked daily by experienced chefs
- Vegetarian & non-veg options – something for every appetite
- Homemade Indian sweets – Gulab Jamun, Rasgulla, Barfi & more
- Dine-in, takeaway & online ordering – fast, convenient & affordable

Whether it's a casual family dinner, a celebration, or a quick lunch on the go, Streets of Punjab offers something for everyone. Their sweets counter is especially popular during Indian festivals like Diwali and Holi, with many locals returning just for the mithai.
