

Talent Services Group Officially Launches to Address Skilled Trades Talent Gaps Across North America

Orlando, Florida Jul 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Talent Services Group (TSG), a newly launched staffing firm dedicated exclusively to connecting skilled trades professionals with top employers across North America, proudly announces its official launch today.

TSG specializes in advancing workforce solutions that serve high-demand industries such as power generation, manufacturing, commercial construction, and oil & gas. With infrastructure projects ramping up and skilled labor shortages reaching critical levels, TSG is stepping in to meet the urgent demand for experienced, certified, and mobilization-ready trades professionals.

“We don’t just fill jobs — we build careers, strengthen operations, and deliver tailored staffing solutions that work,” said Trevin Melton, Founder and President of Talent Services Group. “While our brand may be new, our team brings years of proven experience connecting top-tier trades talent with companies that value quality and reliability.”

Key features of Talent Services Group include:

- Expertise in technical and skilled trades staffing
- Nationwide mobilization and rapid deployment capabilities
- Rigorous safety, compliance, and credentialing standards
- A trusted staffing partner for mission-critical industries

Employers benefit from quick access to a curated network of highly skilled, safety-certified professionals — helping reduce downtime, improve productivity, and control workforce costs. Talent Services Group is now onboarding both clients and candidates through its website. To learn more, visit <http://tsgtalent.com> or follow us on LinkedIn <https://www.linkedin.com/company/talent-services-group-tsg>
