

Tammie Lee Bridegroom-Henning Strengthens Surgical Nursing in Toledo, OH

Experienced RN brings expert perioperative care and clinical mentorship to support patient safety and surgical excellence

New York City, New York Jul 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Toledo Surgical Center is pleased to welcome Tammie Lee Bridegroom-Henning, RN, BSN, CST, as a senior surgical nurse committed to delivering exceptional perioperative care. With dual qualifications in nursing and surgical technology, Tammie brings a high level of clinical skill, gentle patient support, and team-based leadership to the operating room environment in Toledo and the surrounding region.

Tammie holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and is certified as a Surgical Technologist. She specializes in perioperative nursing, including patient preparation, intraoperative assistance, sterile technique, instrumentation, and post-anesthesia care. Her expertise ensures efficient surgical flow and attentive monitoring to enhance patient outcomes and surgical quality.

At Toledo Surgical Center, Tammie is known for her calming presence, precise teamwork, and strong communication with both patients and surgical teams. She collaborates closely with surgeons, anesthesiologists, and recovery staff to create safe and supportive surgical environments. Her compassionate approach puts patients at ease and reinforces clinical excellence during every procedure.

Committed to professional growth, Tammie serves as a mentor to student nurses and surgical tech trainees. She also contributes to clinical education programs and supports quality improvement initiatives related to infection control, patient safety protocols, and instrument processing. Her leadership fosters a culture of continuous excellence and innovation within perioperative care.

Looking ahead, Tammie plans to help implement nurse-led surgical debrief programs, support the development of patient-centered recovery pathways, and participate in community outreach efforts to raise awareness about surgical safety and patient education. Her work aligns with Toledo Surgical Center's mission to provide skilled, compassionate, and team-driven care that promotes safety and well-being for all surgical patients.
