“If you want to breathe rare air, you have to run where the greats run — uphill, under pressure, and without excuses,” says Tony.

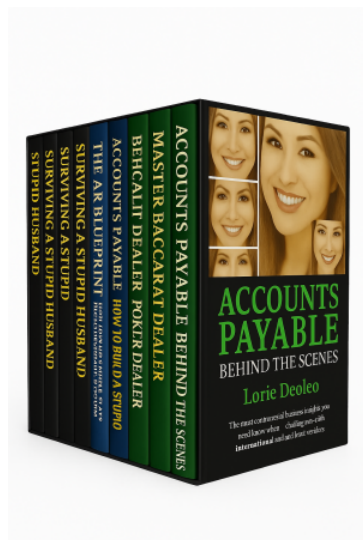

His passion for winning — whether in the boardroom, the gym, or personal growth — fuels his determination to uplift others. By participating in the Packman Uphill Run, Tony sends a clear message: from steep trails to life’s toughest battles, developing a mindset for victory is essential.

With his unmatched business acumen and fitness discipline, this real estate mogul and visionary empowers the next generation to scale success, live with purpose, and conquer challenges — one step at a time.
