

Two Legends Unite in Love and Purpose: Rodney & Anna Cox Marry in Intimate Las Vegas Ceremony

Award-winning filmmaker Rodney Cox and creative visionary Anna Goode Cox announce their private wedding in Las Vegas, marking the beginning of a powerful personal and creative partnership.

Las Vegas, Nevada Jul 7, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - With elegance, intimacy, and divine alignment, Rodney Cox and Anna Goode Cox are proud to announce their marriage on July 1, 2025, in a private ceremony held in Las Vegas, Nevada. The new power couple—now officially Mr. & Mrs. Cox—celebrated their union with joy, love, and the promise of a shared legacy that transcends entertainment, art, and purpose.

Rodney Cox, an award-winning filmmaker, actor, and Marine Corps veteran, hails from the west end of Louisville, Kentucky. After serving honorably in Operation Iraqi Freedom with the United States Marine Corps and Army Reserves, Rodney transitioned into film and television. His directorial debut, Frat House: A College Party Movie, received national distribution and appeared on major retail platforms such as Walmart, Best Buy, and Barnes & Noble. Known for his discipline, creative vision, and storytelling talent, Rodney's career continues to thrive in the entertainment industry.

Anna Cox, a multifaceted force in fashion and film, has captivated audiences from the runway to the writer's room. Known for her striking presence and magnetic elegance, Anna is now reshaping her narrative behind the camera. Collaborating with creative partner Helen Brinich Barnes, she is actively producing and directing films, showcasing her gift for storytelling and cinematic insight. Her journey is redefining what it means to be both a muse and a maker.

Together, Rodney and Anna embody the spirit of #PurposePartners—fueled by faith, passion, and creative synergy. Their wedding marks not only a personal milestone but the beginning of a mission-driven collaboration to inspire, uplift, and transform lives through media, art, and love.

"He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the Lord." – Proverbs 18:22

The couple extends heartfelt gratitude to all who have supported their journey. A larger celebration with family and friends is being planned.
