

UK-Based Talent Partner Black Piano Explores Expansion into the US Market

Bishops Stortford, Hertfordshire Jul 24, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - At Black Piano, we've been focused on helping UK and European businesses build high-performing remote teams with skilled Indian talent. Since 2020, we've delivered a service rooted in transparency, affordability, and long-term partnerships, and it's allowed our clients to grow with confidence and consistency.

As we look ahead, we are now actively exploring the opportunity to bring our services to the United States.

This is a natural next step as more businesses around the world seek flexible, high-quality solutions for building remote teams. With our experience across recruitment, Employer of Record \(EOR\), payroll, and HR support and a 98% staff retention rate, we believe our model could bring real value to US-based companies.

We're currently in the planning phase and are taking a thoughtful approach to understanding how we can best support the US market. We'll share more as our plans develop.

In the meantime, we're open to early conversations with businesses, partners, or advisors who are interested in what Black Piano could bring to the US market.

Black Piano is a UK-based talent partner dedicated to connecting small to medium-sized businesses with top Indian talent. We help businesses find their ideal talent and manage everything on their behalf. Whether you need a single remote hire or an entire team, we make it happen seamlessly and affordably. You pay one simple fee, and we take care of payroll, employee benefits, documentation, retention, and all the admin, so you can focus on growing your business. Our mission is to bring transparency, simplicity, and empowerment to the offshoring, outsourcing, and Employer of Record (EOR) industry. We proudly support businesses across the UK, the US, South Africa, Australia, and beyond, helping them build strong, efficient remote teams without the hassle. Let us take the stress out of hiring while you enjoy the benefits of a dedicated, motivated team working exclusively for you.
