

Un-Enmesh and Reclaim Your Life

New Coaching Program Offers a 12-Week Path to Personal Freedom and Emotional Clarity

Bonita Springs, Florida Jul 17, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - In a bold step toward emotional wellness and personal autonomy, Unenmeshed.com announces the official launch of its 12-Week Enmeshment Recovery Coaching Program—a groundbreaking initiative designed to help individuals break free from the emotional entanglement of enmeshed relationships.

The program, rooted in empathy and lived experience, equips participants with powerful tools to reclaim their identity, rebuild boundaries, and navigate relationships from a place of authenticity.

Understanding the Chains of Enmeshment

Enmeshment is more than emotional closeness—it's a suffocating dynamic where personal boundaries disappear, and individual identity is sacrificed for the sake of others. Those affected often feel guilty when prioritizing their needs, absorb others' emotions, and struggle to differentiate their feelings from those around them.

Unenmesh.com is changing that narrative with a coaching program built on practical strategies and compassionate guidance.

Inside the 12-Week Journey

Participants will receive:

- Personalized Coaching – One-on-one sessions led by coaches with firsthand experience overcoming enmeshment.
- Daily Support – Ongoing accountability and encouragement via voice and text check-ins.
- Comprehensive Curriculum – A self-paced course with journaling prompts, emotional tracking tools, and boundary-setting exercises.
- Lifelong Community Access – Exclusive membership to a private support group for continued connection and healing.

Flexible Coaching Packages to Meet Every Need

Recognizing that healing isn't one-size-fits-all, Unenmesh.com offers three tiers of support:

- Silver – One coaching call, full course access, and 12 weeks of daily support.
- Gold – Two coaching calls, 24 weeks of daily support, and expanded community engagement.
- Platinum – Four coaching calls, 48 weeks of support, and exclusive benefits for those seeking intensive transformation.

A Personal Message from the Founder

"Breaking free from enmeshed relationships is a courageous act of self-love," says Raine Everly, founder of Unenmesh.com. "This program isn't just theory—it's the roadmap we wish we had. It's designed to walk with people step by step into a life where their voice matters, their boundaries are honored, and their identity is restored."
