This landmark celebration, organized for the very first time in Parel by any startup organization, attracted over 100 enthusiastic women, all adorned in stunning traditional attire. The atmosphere came alive with the beats of dhol-tasha, joyful folk songs, and energetic Manglagaur games, reviving the essence of this beautiful tradition.

Manglagaur is of deep spiritual significance, especially for married women who celebrate it during Shravan by praying for family prosperity and performing traditional rituals. Jay Shankar Travels ensured that every element of the evening — from rituals to décor — reflected this devotion and cultural richness.

The event was further elevated by the presence of celebrity guest Sanjana Patil, who brought charm and festive spirit to the celebration. Real-life changemaker and social activist Ms. Shital Bhatkar also graced the evening, leaving a strong impression on the audience with her dignified presence and inspiring work.

The success of the event was made possible under the visionary leadership of Founder Ms. Geetanjali Salgaonkar and Co-founder Mr. Prasad S. Dhamnaskar, whose mission is to revive and preserve Indian cultural traditions through immersive and spiritual travel experiences. “Our goal is to build a community that celebrates our roots in meaningful ways. This Manglagaur event is just the beginning,” shared Ms. Salgaonkar.
