

A New up coming shoe brand called "SamF's Shoes" is Out Now

A shoe brand named after Samuel Brock Flynn

Crossville, Tennessee Feb 5, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - SamF's Shoes is an upcoming brand. SamF's Shoes is manufactured by AliveShoe's that is who makes our shoes. AlvieShoes accepted Mr. Flynn with his designs as well in the letter in the photos. The goal with SamFs Shoes is to be a sports shoe brand; however, we will see where the business adventure goes. SamF's Shoes is a cool brand name that hopes to be around for a while.

SamF's Shoes originated & founded by Samuel Brock Flynn (Podcaster, Actor & Photographer). The reason SamF's is meant to be short for "Sam Flynn Brand" of shoes and that is the brand currently. Changes can occur in the future, but for now, it is staying as that name and logo are staying as well. SamF's Shoes is released by Samuel Brock Flynn in Crossville, Tennessee, which is a small town in Tennessee. SamF's Shoes is something creative that is made to look cool and look interesting and have that sporty look to the name. Some of the shoes are on AliveShoes.com/brand/samfsshoes2025.

They are made in Italy and go for $200 + on the website, but it's about that quality and durability in them is why the price is so high. We also have cheaper shoes however, the shoes on our other site may or may not be made in Italy. Check out the site - sbfoff-shop.fourthwall.com.
