Texas Sees Rise in DWI Class Enrollments

San Antonio, Texas Feb 3, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - As the festive season comes to a close, courts across Texas are seeing a noticeable uptick in enrollments for court-mandated alcohol education programs. Alamo Center, a trusted online provider of TDLR- and DPS-approved classes, reports increased demand from residents aiming to complete their requirements promptly and move forward.

Alamo Center offers a variety of DWI Classes in Texas, all delivered through live Zoom sessions and accepted statewide by courts, DPS, and probation services. With over 30 years of service, their certified instructors guide participants through flexible, affordable instruction rooted in legal compliance and personal growth.

“Many individuals take the class in advance of a court appearance,” explains Executive Director John Mejia. “Our goal is to make the process seamless and ensure participants meet legal requirements while gaining insight about making safer choices”.

Alamo Center’s program lineup includes a 12-hour DWI Education course for first offenders, a 32-hour repeat offender intervention program, a 15-hour Drug Offender Education Program, Victim Impact Panels, and alcohol evaluations, each designed to satisfy state-mandated obligations.

With class registrations and certificates delivered seamlessly online, Alamo Center helps Texans across every county stay compliant and get back behind the wheel legally and responsibly.
