

Colburn Law Expands Presence with New Office in Downtown Seattle

Colburn Law announces the opening of its new Seattle office, enhancing access to personal injury legal services in Washington State.

Seattle, Washington Aug 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Colburn Law announces the opening of its new Seattle office, enhancing access to personal injury legal services in Washington State.

Colburn Law, a boutique personal injury and wrongful death firm serving Washington State, has officially opened a new office in the heart of downtown Seattle. The new location, situated in the IBM Building at 1200 5th Ave, Suite 1400, strengthens the firm's regional presence and provides increased accessibility for clients throughout the greater Seattle area.

Founded in 2009 by personal injury attorney Greg Colburn, Colburn Law has built a reputation for handling complex personal injury claims with a client-focused approach. The firm's new Seattle office will serve as a strategic extension of its existing operations in Issaquah, reinforcing its commitment to personalized legal advocacy across King County and beyond.

"The decision to open a second location in downtown Seattle reflects our continued growth and our mission to be where our clients need us," said Greg Colburn, founder of Colburn Law. "If you've been hurt by someone's carelessness, here's what you need to know: I will listen. I will believe you. I will make sure your story is heard — and I will fight with everything I have to help you get back on your feet."

Colburn Law's legal team focuses exclusively on personal injury and wrongful death claims, including cases involving motor vehicle accidents, traumatic brain and spinal cord injuries, product defects, construction accidents, and other forms of negligence. By limiting caseloads, the firm ensures dedicated and individualized attention to each matter, operating on a contingency fee basis to support injured clients without upfront costs.

Greg Colburn has earned repeated recognition by Super Lawyers from 2022 through 2025 and has been featured in Lawyer Magazine for his contributions to the field of personal injury law in Washington. The firm's new Seattle office aims to continue this standard of excellence, offering a modern, centrally located environment to consult with clients, collaborate on litigation, and engage with the local legal community.
