

Cosmic rock band, SENSOR NOISE, releases fourth single, “Apparition.”

Los Angeles, California Aug 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Known for his fan-favorite role as Milton Krupnick on Disney XD's "Kickin' It," artist Dylan Snyder flexes his musical muscles as the bassist and vocalist on this track, singing alongside wife and fellow Disney star, Allisyn Snyder (née Arm).

The lyrics to "Apparition" were written about Dylan's late father, Leslie Snyder, who was killed by a drunk driver in 2017. The verses speak of a desire to connect with a visiting spirit, featuring lines such as: “It’s 2AM, I’m home alone. Calling you without a phone. I close my eyes and say your name, and drift into a lucid state.”

Rock singer and sound healer Bianca Jazmine features on the track, playing the flute, and acting as the ethereal voice of the Universal Harmony referenced in the hook. She can be seen in their music video (to be released 8/16/25 on the Sensor Noise YouTube channel) running through fields and serenading pond creatures.

Sensor Noise promises more to come this year, saying they have several psychedelic tunes on the horizon. They can be found on Instagram at @SensorNoise.
