

Daniel E. Ekoh, BDS, DMD, MPH: A Compassionate Leader in Dentistry and Public Health

Managing Clinical Director at Aspen Dental in Lynchburg, Virginia, Committed to Patient-Centered, Comprehensive Dental Care

New York City, New York Aug 17, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Daniel E. Ekoh, BDS, DMD, MPH, a dedicated dentist, dental surgeon, epidemiologist, and public health expert, is making waves in the dental community as the Managing Clinical Director at Aspen Dental in Lynchburg, Virginia. Known for his patient-centered approach and unwavering commitment to clinical excellence, Dr. Ekoh is redefining what it means to provide comprehensive dental care.

His extensive training and experience set him apart in the field. Dr. Ekoh holds a Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry from the prestigious Boston University Henry M. Goldman School of Dental Medicine and a Master of Public Health in Epidemiology from Liberty University. Additionally, he has completed a Certificate focused on the Principles and Practice of Clinical Research from the National Institute of Health Clinical Center in Bethesda, Maryland. This strong academic foundation equips Dr. Ekoh with the knowledge and skills to understand not just individual patient needs but also broader public health implications in dental care.

At Aspen Dental, Dr. Ekoh offers a wide range of dental services, including preventive measures, cosmetic enhancements, and restorative procedures. His approach to dentistry emphasizes education, open communication, and personalized treatment plans tailored to meet each patient's unique needs. "I believe that informed patients are empowered patients," Dr. Ekoh states. "By fostering an environment of trust and respect, I can help my patients feel comfortable and confident in their dental care journey."

Dr. Ekoh's calm and reassuring demeanor is particularly beneficial for patients who experience dental anxiety. He understands that the dental chair can be a source of stress for many individuals and strives to create a supportive atmosphere where patients feel heard and valued. "I take great pride in building long-term relationships with my patients," he explains. "When patients know they can trust their dentist, they are more likely to prioritize their dental health."

A seasoned professional, Dr. Ekoh has an impressive track record in dentistry and public health. Before joining Aspen Dental, he worked as a dental house officer at the University of Benin Teaching Hospital in Nigeria. Subsequently, he served as a dental surgeon at the Federal Medical Centre in Jigawa, Nigeria, where he was promoted to senior dental officer in 2016. His journey continued in the United States, where he held multiple roles, including presiding chairman for the Greater New York Dental Meeting and a public health intern with Centra Health.

Dr. Ekoh's commitment to public health is evident in his active participation in various professional organizations. He is a member of the Academy of General Dentistry, the American Dental Association, and the American Public Health Association, where he sits on the Oral Health Committee. His involvement in the Virginia Public Health Association as a member of the Epidemiology Committee further highlights his dedication to improving oral health on a larger scale.

Among his accolades, Dr. Ekoh has received several prestigious awards, including the Award for Applied Research from Liberty University's Center for Research and Scholarships and a Certificate of Recognition from Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, for his outstanding contributions to controlling the spread of COVID-19 in the state. His research on "Patterns of Influenza-Like Illness and Vaccination Coverage on Liberty University's Campus" also earned him recognition at the Virginia Public Health Association Scientific Conference in 2018.

In addition to his clinical duties, Dr. Ekoh is passionate about community outreach. He actively participates in programs that provide dental care and education to underserved populations, believing that everyone deserves access to quality dental services. "My dedication to this profession goes beyond the clinic," Dr. Ekoh asserts. "I want to make a difference in the lives of those who need it most."

As he continues to advance in his career, Dr. Daniel E. Ekoh remains committed to providing exceptional dental care and contributing to public health initiatives. Patients in Lynchburg can expect not just a dentist, but a partner in their journey toward achieving and maintaining confident, healthy smiles.
