

Donna DeVries: Transforming Lives at Providence Health & Services in Oregon

A Dedication to Excellence in Nursing and Patient Care

New York City, New York Aug 14, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Donna DeVries, a distinguished nurse at Providence Health & Services, stands out as a beacon of excellence in the medical community. With 34 years of experience in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), her deep commitment to patient care and unwavering passion for nursing have made a profound impact on the lives of countless patients and their families.

As a Certified Patient Safety Specialist and an advocate for professional development, Donna embodies the core values of communication, safety, and trust in her interactions with patients. Her leadership and expertise in nursing education have established her as a vital asset to the healthcare team at Providence Health & Services, where she continuously strives to enhance the quality of life for her patients.

Donna's extensive education includes a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Alberta and a Master's degree in Health Systems Leadership and Education from Regis University. Her academic background, combined with her hands-on experience, equips her with a unique perspective on patient care and nursing education, allowing her to deliver the highest standard of care in the NICU.

Throughout her career, Donna has received several prestigious accolades, including the Daisy Award for Educator of the Year in 2015 and the Values in Action Award from Providence St. Joseph's in 2024. These honors reflect her dedication to excellence and her ability to inspire her peers and students alike.

When asked about the key to her success, Donna attributes it to being open to opportunities, having a strong support system, and maintaining a consistent presence in her work. "Every day in the NICU is an opportunity to make a difference," she shared. "I am grateful for the chance to work alongside such talented individuals and to support families during some of their most challenging moments."

As she continues her journey in the nursing profession, Donna DeVries remains committed to advancing patient care and education in the NICU. Her passion for nursing and dedication to patient safety serve as an inspiration to her colleagues and a source of comfort to the families she serves.
