

Dr. Leah Brown Joins St. Thomas Medical Group to Strengthen Pulmonary Care in Nashville

New Physician Brings Expertise in Pulmonary Diseases and a Passion for Patient Care

New York City, New York Aug 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - St. Thomas Medical Group is excited to announce the addition of Dr. Leah Brown to its esteemed team of healthcare professionals. Dr. Brown joined the practice in 2025 after completing her extensive training at Vanderbilt University, where she honed her skills in Internal Medicine and Pulmonary and Critical Care.

Dr. Brown's journey in medicine began at the University of Georgia, where she graduated summa cum laude. She then pursued her medical degree at the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta, Georgia. Following her graduation, she relocated to Nashville to further her training at Vanderbilt, culminating in a fellowship that prepared her to tackle complex pulmonary issues.

With a specialization in a wide range of pulmonary diseases, Dr. Brown is particularly focused on chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), asthma, bronchiectasis, chronic cough, dyspnea, and lung nodules. Her expertise is complemented by her proficiency in various pulmonary procedures, both in the Intensive Care Unit and outpatient settings, including fiberoptic bronchoscopy, thoracentesis, and chest tube insertion.

In addition to her medical practice, Dr. Brown is also an emerging novelist, showcasing her creativity and passion for storytelling. This unique blend of skills allows her to connect with patients on a personal level, fostering a supportive and compassionate environment in her practice.

When not in her scrubs, Dr. Brown enjoys exploring Nashville's vibrant food scene, hiking with her partner and their dogs, and traveling the world. Her diverse interests contribute to her holistic approach to health and wellness, making her a valuable asset to the St. Thomas Medical Group.
