

Fall Porch Decorating Made Easy by Patio Pumpkins in Charlotte County, Florida

Local business delivers and installs full fall porch displays so homeowners don't have to.

Port Charlotte, Florida Aug 4, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Patio Pumpkins, a seasonal decorating company based in Charlotte County, Florida, is transforming front porches across the region with custom fall decor packages that take all the work out of decorating. Whether homeowners are looking to add charm to their entryway, host a fall-themed gathering, or simply celebrate the season, Patio Pumpkins provides a hassle-free solution that brings autumn magic straight to their doorstep.

Each package includes a curated selection of real pumpkins, hay bales, ornamental gourds, and other seasonal accents—professionally delivered, styled, and arranged to complement the look and layout of each customer’s porch. Packages start at $375 and are designed to suit a range of home styles and budgets. For added convenience, Patio Pumpkins also offers an optional removal service at the end of the season, leaving no cleanup or disposal responsibilities for the customer.

"We believe every family should get to enjoy a festive fall porch without the mess or time commitment," said owner of Patio Pumpkins. "That’s why we created an all-in-one service—from delivery to styling to pickup—so our customers can simply enjoy the season."

Patio Pumpkins is locally owned and operated and currently serves Port Charlotte, Punta Gorda, North Port, Englewood, and surrounding areas. Their services are ideal for busy homeowners, families preparing for holiday guests, small businesses wanting a warm seasonal storefront, or anyone looking to boost their home's curb appeal for fall.

Demand is high, and slots are limited for the 2025 decorating season. Residents are encouraged to reserve early to secure their preferred installation date.

Booking is available online at www.patio-pumpkins.com or by calling 941-883-8429.
