Special Presentation

The Falling Doves, flying in from the UK, will reprise their role as global ambassadors of sake, music, and cross-cultural collaboration.

"Join me in making this movement global, through music, art, and sake. Don't miss the film, the sake, and the shows. See you at the Kibou Sake Awards, Book and Film Premiere."

– Raechel Kadoya

About The Support Sake Tour

The Support Sake Tour follows two women on a mission to unite communities and cultures in the aftermath of natural disasters. The film documents the rebuilding of sake breweries and the cultural exchange that emerged from tragedy. As part of their 2025 world tour, The Falling Doves have partnered with Kibou to bring the story to global audiences, including key stops across Japan and beyond.

About Kibou Events & Entertainment

For the past two years, Kibou Events & Entertainment has curated cultural experiences that blend music, film, art, and gastronomy. With a mission to celebrate and elevate Japanese cultural traditions while building global bridges, Kibou has emerged as a force for creative diplomacy and community resilience. The Support Sake Gala is the culmination of years of collaboration, storytelling, and vision.
