

Manga “Recycled Brain” Part Two Opens Global Pre-Order After San Diego Comic-Con Spotlight

Japanese Sci-Fi Manga “Recycled Brain” Part Two Opens Global Pre-Order and Is Featured at San Diego Comic-Con & Celebrated in Japanese Media!

San Diego, California Aug 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The highly anticipated sequel to Japanese sci-fi manga “Recycled Brain,” Part Two: Life from Another World by multi-creator, author, and researcher \(Ph.D.\) Takahiro Yonemura, is now available for global pre-order. Following the positive reception of Part One, this new volume continues the saga with a gripping story of identity, hope, and survival after a world-shaking catastrophe.

Recently, “Recycled Brain” was featured at San Diego Comic-Con, marking a major step for the series’ international reach. In Japan, both the author and the work have also been covered in local newspapers and a regional magazine, showcasing its unique cross-cultural appeal.

About the Book:

After a devastating attack leaves a futuristic theme park in ruins, Hayate Yamano faces existential questions that threaten to unravel not only his own sense of self, but the fate of humanity. With his dragon companion Vine, Hayate must confront dark truths and make impossible choices in a world teetering between hope and destruction. “Recycled Brain Part Two” is a bold fusion of speculative science fiction, philosophy, and high-stakes action.

Author’s Statement:

“Both biotechnology and AI offer moments of breathtaking wonder. Through this story, I wanted readers to experience that sense of awe as something personal, not just as distant observers.

I poured my energy, spirit, and even a few of my own headaches into creating this book. I hope you find something in these pages that surprises you, moves you, and maybe makes you pause and think.”
— Takahiro Yonemura
