Morgen is a talented and versatile music artist who can easily captivate listeners all around the world. She possesses a highly melodic voice and beautiful vocal style, which allows her to sing gracefully through each of her musical releases. The latest song, 'Not The Burden \(Roots That Sew\),' deals with intriguing subjects of mental health by showcasing different facts of life. A lot of people consider themselves a burden to others, and the singer is telling them how wrong they are. Perhaps the roots are sown deep into the heart of the listeners, but there is a way to get out of it by practicing mindfulness. Burden is not something that can be imposed on others, and Morgen tells how to be influenced by others.

Morgen's Life Lens is growing rapidly with artist Morgen L Horner's consistent music releases. She has a beautiful voice and mainly works in the genre of pop that easily resonates with audiences.

Previously, this artist has dropped many other tracks like 'Battlefield Mind (Go To Hell Julie)', 'A Little Bit Better', 'You Are Always Enough', etc, to name some. Each of these tracks carries a deep message and a beautiful musical arrangement that go perfectly with Morgen's melodic voice.
