About Mutebi Diana

Born on November 1st, 1987, in St Jude Clinic Nyendo, Masaka, Mutebi Diana is a proud mother of four and a shining example of determination and resilience. After completing her primary education at Stella Maris, Villa Road, Byana Maryhill, and secondary education at Kako Secondary and Masaka Secondary, Diana pursued a degree in Social Sciences at Makerere University, graduating in January 2012.

From TASO to Triumph

Diana's professional journey began at The AIDS Support Organization (TASO) in Masaka, where she worked for a year. However, due to financial constraints, she had to leave her job. It was her husband, Wakulila JohnKennedy, who came to her rescue, supporting her entrepreneurial spirit. In 2020, after the COVID-19 pandemic, Diana launched Lady D World Beauty Cosmetics at Natete Business Center. With a passion for beauty and cosmetics, she worked tirelessly to build her brand.
