

OSLC Highlight: Anthony I. Anaebere, Sr. Memorial Scholarship

Scholarship for Nigerian-Born and First-Generation Nigerian-American Engineering Students

Dallas, Texas Sep 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - For this edition of our quarterly highlight, we are honored to feature the Anthony I. Anaebere, Sr. Memorial Scholarship.

Established by the children of Anthony I. Anaebere, Sr., this $1,000 scholarship supports Nigerian-born and First-Generation Nigerian-American students pursuing undergraduate or graduate degrees in engineering at accredited institutions across the United States.

The scholarship aims to empower future engineers who demonstrate both academic excellence and a strong commitment to community service.

We are especially proud that OSLC's founding member contributed to hosting the scholarship launch and is part of the giving circle, an inspiring reflection of our shared commitment to collaborative giving and service-oriented leadership.

Celebrating 10 Years of Service

This quarterly highlight also coincides with OSLC's 10th anniversary, a milestone that marks a decade of promoting community service among youth and families since 2015. Through activities like the One Touch Initiative and Writers Group, OSLC seeks to show how simple, consistent acts of service can help strengthen families and communities.

Looking ahead, OSLC aims to remain a platform committed to demonstrating how service can be embraced by anyone, encouraging simple but meaningful acts of service that uplift communities and inspire future leaders.
