

Podcast History is Made: The First Vinyl Record Celebrating Black and Brown Voices is Being Pressed

Chicago, Illinois Aug 21, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Podcast History is Made: The First Vinyl Record Centering and Celebrating Black and Brown Voices in Podcasting is Being Pressed

The Qube, your hub to discover your next favorite Black and Brown podcasts, in partnership with Certified Crucial, a leading merchandise solutions company for creators, proudly announces the release of The Podcast Salon - Volume One.

The Podcast Salon - Volume One features thirteen brilliant Black & Brown podcasts who are helping to shape the culture. Included are compelling, inspiring, and down right funny clips from each podcast designed to spark discovery, preserve our stories and our voices for years to come. This vinyl record is more than just a compilation, it is a living archive and collector's item.

"When TikTok went dark in January I was inspired to find a way to take back control of our voices. To put them somewhere they can't be erased and a vinyl record seemed like the perfect way to do it." says Anna DeShawn, founder of The Qube.

Marz, co-founder of Certified Crucial says, "We're proud to help launch the first vinyl in podcasting to center Black and Brown voices. This is exactly why we started Certified Crucial: to uplift storytellers, preserve their work, and make this industry more equitable."

The Qube has curated this historic collection for all of us to enjoy. To order your vinyl, visit www.certifiedcrucial.com/podcastsalon.
