

Skender Murtezani, MD, MS: A Leader in Internal Medicine and Medical Education in Little Neck, New York

Dedicated to Patient Care and the Advancement of Future Physicians

New York City, New York Aug 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Skender Murtezani, MD, MS, a highly respected internist and academic clinician, is making significant strides in both patient care and medical education in the Little Neck area. As the founder of his practice, Skender Murtezani, MD, PLLC, Dr. Murtezani is committed to providing exceptional internal medicine services while also shaping the next generation of physicians as an Assistant Professor of Clinical Medicine at Weill Cornell Medical College.

Dr. Murtezani's medical journey began at Ss. Cyril and Methodius University - Faculty of Medicine in Macedonia, where he earned his Medical Degree. His pursuit of excellence continued in the United States, where he completed his residency in internal medicine at NewYork-Presbyterian Queens Hospital. Additionally, he holds a Master of Science Degree in Clinical Epidemiology from the Weill Cornell Graduate School of Medical Sciences, equipping him with a solid foundation for both clinical practice and academic teaching.

As a board-certified internist through the American Board of Internal Medicine, Dr. Murtezani is actively involved in several professional organizations, including the American Medical Association, the American Association of Neuroscience Nurses, the Albanian American Medical Society, and Vatra, the Pan-Albanian Federation of America. His commitment to research and education is evident in his numerous publications, with a particular fondness for the American Journal of Cardiology.

Passionate about integrating evidence-based and pathophysiology-based medicine with compassionate care, Dr. Murtezani specializes in comprehensive internal medicine for adults, serving patients across Long Island and the NYC area. His affiliation with NewYork-Presbyterian Queens Hospital allows him to accept a wide range of major insurance plans, ensuring accessibility to quality healthcare for all.

Dr. Murtezani's dedication extends beyond his practice; he is a mentor to medical trainees, instilling in them the values of patient-centered care and the importance of continuous learning in medicine. He attributes his success to the trust he builds with patients and his relentless pursuit of excellence.

Outside his professional commitments, Dr. Murtezani enjoys playing tennis and basketball, balancing a fulfilling career with personal interests.
