A Sarasota native with deep Florida roots, Tennille combines her intimate knowledge of the region with an unwavering passion for helping clients achieve their real estate dreams. Before stepping into real estate, Tennille served as Chief Legislative Assistant in the Florida Senate for over 16 years, a role that sharpened her expertise in negotiation, communication, and relationship building—skills that now define her approach to real estate.

This national exposure only amplified what clients in her community already know—Tennille is a force in real estate who delivers on her promises.

When reflecting on her success, Tennille attributes her drive to the values instilled in her by her father, her legislative experience, and her unwavering commitment to advocating for her clients.
