

TubePilot AI Launches Free Real Time YouTube Video Live View Count Tool

Popular YouTube growth platform adds new tool to help creators, marketers, and fans track video performance live.

Fairbanks, Alaska Aug 13, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - A widely used platform offering free tools for YouTube creators, today announced the launch of its newest feature the YouTube Live Video View Count Tool by Tubepilot AI. This tool allows users to monitor live view counts for any YouTube video in real time, without the need to refresh the page or sign up for an account.

TubePilot is already trusted by thousands of creators and marketers worldwide for its suite of over 50 free tools designed to simplify channel growth, video optimization, and analytics. The new Live View Count tool further strengthens the platform's commitment to providing easy, accessible, and powerful solutions for the YouTube community.

“We built this tool to give creators and marketers instant visibility into how their videos are performing,” said a spokesperson for TubePilot AI. “Real-time tracking can make a big difference during video premieres, trending campaigns, or viral moments and we’re proud to make it free for everyone.”

Key Features:

- Live View Tracking: Displays the current view count of any YouTube video and updates continuously.
- Unlimited Use: There are no credit restrictions; users can track as many videos as they wish.
- Completely Free: No sign-up or payment is required to access the tool.
- Simple Interface: Just paste the video URL and start tracking instantly.

Ideal For:

- Content Creators: Monitor newly uploaded videos in real time.
- Marketers: Track campaign performance live as engagement grows.
- Fans & Analysts: Observe viral content as it spreads.

The tool requires no login, and view counts update automatically, offering a smooth and distraction-free experience. Whether you're launching a new video, managing a marketing campaign, or simply curious about a viral video's momentum, this tool is built to deliver quick insights without any friction.

This launch adds to TubePilot's extensive library of creator-focused tools from title analyzers to thumbnail testers all aimed at helping YouTubers grow smarter. With an intuitive interface and a no-cost model, TubePilot continues to be a go-to resource in the creator economy.
