

50% More SQLs in 90 days: Sahil Priyani on Building Predictable Revenue Systems for US businesses

By implementing structured sales frameworks, AI-driven outreach, and remote closers, Sahil Priyani helps US companies increase qualified leads by 50%, improve closing rates by 30%, and cut manual sales effort by 40%.

Cheyenne, Wyoming Sep 20, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Predictable revenue doesn't happen by chance. In the competitive US B2B market, it's the result of structured sales systems, data-driven execution, and knowing your ideal client," says Sahil Priyani, founder of The One Percent Club.

With over 10 years of experience in B2B sales, Sahil Priyani helps US businesses navigate common challenges like inconsistent lead flow, long sales cycles, and remote sales adoption.

His systematic frameworks enable companies to streamline lead generation, efficiently qualify prospects, and consistently close high-value deals.

Clients implementing Sahil's methods have achieved:

- 50% increase in qualified leads within 3 months
- 30% improvement in sales closing rates using remote closers
- 40% reduction in manual sales tasks through AI-powered automation

The One Percent Club focuses on intent-based prospecting, hyper-personalized outreach, automated CRM workflows, and remote closing teams—helping US companies build repeatable and scalable revenue engines.

This approach is particularly impactful for businesses operating across multiple states, managing remote sales teams, or looking to scale efficiently without adding excessive overhead.

"Our goal is to equip US businesses with proven systems so they can replicate success consistently. It's not just about closing deals—it's about creating predictable, high-performing sales engines that align with market realities," adds Sahil.

The One Percent Club serves a diverse set of US clients, including B2B SaaS companies, consulting agencies, HR services, and coaching businesses, providing customized strategies, actionable insights, and hands-on support for sustained growth.
