Los Angeles, California Sep 25, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Beth Tabanera is honored to present A Faithful Fight for Life, her inspiring new memoir that details her life. This powerful work captures her extraordinary journey of survival through devastating health battles, including open-heart surgery, multiple brain surgeries, and other life-threatening conditions, all while leaning on faith as her guiding light.

From her earliest days in the Philippines, Beth was nurtured by the unconditional love and prayers of her grandmother, a foundation that would later sustain her in her darkest hours. Her memoir traces her path from childhood to international experiences in Russia, Bahrain, and the United States, culminating in her courageous fight against illness. With honesty and grace, she shares the fears, setbacks, and triumphs that shaped her into a living testament of resilience.

More Than One Woman's Journey

While deeply personal, Beth Tabanera's account extends beyond her own life. A Faithful Fight for Life serves as a universal reminder that healing and faith are intertwined, and that even in moments of despair, there is strength to be found in perseverance.

She writes with a heartfelt clarity that does not instruct or demand, but instead invites readers to walk alongside her as she recounts moments of uncertainty, hope, and transformation. Whether it is through the support of her medical team, the prayers of her church family, or the kindness of friends and strangers, the memoir illuminates the impact of community and compassion on the road to recovery.

A Message That Crosses Borders

To ensure her story can reach hearts across the globe, A Faithful Fight for Life has been made available in twelve languages: Spanish, French, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Chinese (Mandarin), Japanese, Arabic, Hindi, Korean, German, and English. This broad accessibility reflects the universal message of faith and endurance that lies at the core of the book.

Timely and Relevant

Beth's testimony arrives at a time when many around the world continue to grapple with personal trials, whether related to health, loss, or uncertainty. Her words echo the timeless promise of Psalm 23 — that even in the valley of shadows, we are never truly alone. A Faithful Fight for Life offers encouragement not only to those battling illness but to anyone searching for hope and strength amid life's unpredictable challenges.

About the Author

Beth Tabanera is a survivor, caregiver, and woman of deep faith. Originally from the Philippines, she later built her life in Los Angeles, where she has dedicated much of her career to nurturing children as a newborn care specialist. Her resilience was tested through years of medical hardship, yet those same struggles deepened her trust in God and her commitment to share her story.

Her life experiences — shaped by both pain and grace — have given her a voice of authenticity and encouragement that resonates with readers from all walks of life. Through A Faithful Fight for Life, Beth seeks to offer a message of perseverance, love, and the sustaining power of faith.
