Ramona, California Sep 12, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Author Candice Dawn La Fleur Kitts, a passionate storyteller with a flair for the whimsical and divine, announces the publication of her three captivating books: "Diamond Star," "Mom's Guardian Animal Angels," and "My Life." These works transport readers into realms of limitless imagination, where wishes come true, guardian angels watch over children, and a goddess rewrites destiny across time and space.

About the Author: Candice Dawn La Fleur Kitts was born on July 12, 1989, a vivacious spirit with a passion for travel, fine things, and sunset walks along the shore. Her long, dark brown curls frame a face that radiates warmth and determination. A devoted mother above all else, she pours boundless love into raising her children, cherishing every moment. Though currently single, this self-assured queen looks forward to finding lasting love and building her fairytale marriage. Through her writing, Candice invites readers to walk beside her through life's adventures - the challenges overcome, joys celebrated, and dreams still unfolding. In addition to these releases, Kitts continues her literary endeavors with upcoming works, including 'God's Fruits Believers' and 'Queen's Candy Dragon.'

Book 1:

Diamond Star "Diamond Star" by Candice Dawn La Fleur Kitts is a whimsical fantasy novel where four individuals—Paul, Candice, Ayden, and Melody—are granted twelve wishes each by divine beings. The story unfolds in a world of boundless abundance, where wishes manifest instantly, from diamond planets to magical creatures. Candice ascends to Goddess Queen, marrying God and bearing superpowered children, while the others indulge in wealth, fame, and transformation. The narrative revels in extravagance, blending mythology, spirituality, and surrealism, with themes of creation, family, and limitless possibility. However, the lack of conflict and repetitive wish-granting structure may leave some readers craving deeper stakes. The late twist introducing vampirism adds an unexpected edge but feels disconnected from the earlier tone. "Diamond Stars" dazzles with imagination but prioritizes spectacle over substance.

Book 2: Mom's Guardian Animal Angels "Mom's Guardian Animal Angels" by Candice Dawn La Fleur Kitts is a heartwarming children's fiction book filled with magic and love. The story introduces Guardian Animal Angels, mystical creatures with super healing powers who watch over and protect children. These enchanting beings—like Orchid, a pink, candy-creating polar bear-flamingo hybrid—guide kids through adventures, turning dreams into reality. Through playful rhymes and vivid imagery, the book explores themes of family, faith, and forgiveness as a mother expresses her enduring love for her children. The Guardian Animal Angels symbolize hope, showing that even in difficult times, unseen protectors are always near. With its whimsical blend of fantasy and heartfelt emotion, this book is a touching reminder that no child is ever alone.

Book 3:

My Life "My Life" is an autobiography blending memoir, mythology, and science fiction. Candice Dawn La Fleur Kitts portrays herself as "Goddess," a divine being who creates planets using magic and science, then reincarnates across time and space. The narrative spans kingdoms (Egypt, Spain, Jamaica), romances with figures like Pac and Adam, and secret pregnancies, many involving CIA conspiracies and body-swapping. Themes of power, love, and trauma intertwine as Candice claims royal lineage, authors religious texts, and survives assassinations. The nonlinear, dreamlike prose mixes cosmic grandeur with raw personal reflections, often repeating motifs like "DNA eggs" and hidden children. While the book's surreal logic challenges believability, its audacious creativity and unflinching self-mythologizing make it unforgettable.
