

Cordelle Luces: A Beacon of Nursing Excellence in the Bronx

Montefiore Health System Unit-Based Nurse Educator Sets New Standards in Emergency Care and Nursing Education

Bronx, New York Sep 26, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Cordelle Luces, a dedicated Unit-Based Nurse Educator for the Emergency Room at Montefiore Health System, is making significant strides in healthcare education and patient care. With a multifaceted role that includes serving as an intensive care and emergency room registered nurse for both adult and pediatric patients, Luces is committed to excellence and innovation in nursing.

Luces is not only an esteemed nurse but also a Lead Instructor for Basic Life Support (BLS), Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), and Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) at CPR You and Me, LLC. His educational contributions extend to Mercy University's School of Nursing, where he serves as a Nursing Educator and Clinical Instructor, and as an Adjunct Assistant Professor at CUNY Hostos Community College. Through these roles, Luces is shaping the next generation of nursing professionals, instilling them with the skills and knowledge necessary to thrive in fast-paced clinical environments.

Luces's academic journey began at the Med-Life Institute School of Nursing, where he earned his Associate of Applied Science Degree in 2018. He continued to build his expertise with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Aspen University and a Master of Science in Nursing from United States University. His commitment to lifelong learning is demonstrated by his ongoing education, which includes a second Master's Degree focused on Family Nurse Practitioner from Mercy University and postgraduate degrees in Nursing Education from Grand Canyon University and Healthcare Administration from Virginia University of Lynchburg, as well as Adult Health Nursing from Walden University.

As a proud member of the Emergency Nursing Association, American Nursing Association, and the African Nurses Association, Luces exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism and dedication in nursing. His passion for healthcare is deeply rooted in personal experience, inspired by early interactions with patients during his time as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). A pivotal mentor, Nurse Kathleen Ronca, played a significant role in encouraging Luces to pursue advanced nursing education and excellence in patient care.

When asked about his driving force, Luces stated, "My motivation stems from a deep-seated desire to care for my family and community. Nursing is not just a profession for me; it's a calling."

Cordelle Luces continues to be a beacon of inspiration in the Bronx, setting new standards in nursing education and patient care with his unwavering commitment and expertise.
