

Dean Dollar Band (Feat Stevie Hawkins) Unleashes "Red And Black" — A Stadium-shaking Tribute To The Georgia Bulldogs

The Dean Dollar Band (Feat. Stevie Hawkins) is turning up the heat in Athens with “Red and Black” — a rowdy, rocking tribute to the Georgia Bulldogs, their die-hard fans, legendary coaches, and the unforgettable voice of Larry Munson.

Atlanta, Georgia Sep 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Georgia football just got a new fight song. The Dean Dollar Band, in collaboration with blues legend Stevie Hawkins, has released “Red and Black” — a high-octane, Southern rock anthem paying tribute to the Georgia Bulldogs, their passionate fans, legendary coaches, and the iconic voice of the Dawgs, Larry Munson.

More than just a song, "Red and Black" is a rally cry — a fierce, unifying shout from the heart of Bulldog Nation. With Dean Dollar's electrifying guitar riffs, Stevie Hawkins' powerful lead vocal and locomotive drumming, Jimmy Chotas' driving bass, and stadium-sized chorus vocals, the track captures the pride, passion, and spirit that defines Saturdays in Athens, Georgia.

"We didn't just want to write a song about Georgia football—we wanted to give fans something they could scream from the stands," says frontman Dean Dollar. "Thanks to the talented Stevie Hawkins for joining forces with the Dean Dollar Band on the Georgia Bulldogs rally anthem, "Red and Black." Stevie brought unmatched energy, creativity, and spirit to both the writing and recording process." This one's for the Red and Black family, past and present."

"I'm excited to be part of something so special for the Georgia Bulldogs," said Stevie Hawkins. "Writing and recording 'Red and Black' with the Dean Dollar Band has been an incredible experience, and I really believe this song captures the energy and passion of Dawg Nation. It's a rally cry for the fans, the team, and everyone who bleeds red and black. I can't wait for sports radio to get it out there—this one's for the fans, and I hope it becomes the anthem for every game day.

Any sports radio stations interested in playing 'Red and Black' can reach out to me directly for more details."
