

Dr. Daniel Beless: Leading Expert in Hyperbaric Medicine and Wound Care in Atlanta

Innovative Treatments for Complex Wounds at Hyperbaric Physicians of Georgia

Sandy Springs, Georgia Sep 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Hyperbaric Physicians of Georgia proudly announces Dr. Daniel Beless as the Medical Director of its Sandy Springs wound care center, where he has been a prominent figure since 1998. With over three decades of experience in emergency medicine and hyperbaric therapy, Dr. Beless is dedicated to advancing the treatment of complex wounds and compromised tissue conditions.

Dr. Beless brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to his role, having previously served as the Director of the Crawford Long Emergency Department for more than 13 years and as the Director of the Crawford Long Hospital Hyperbaric Medicine Unit. He is also a former faculty member at Emory University's Department of Emergency Medicine, where he continues to share his insights through lectures on hyperbaric medicine and advanced wound care therapy.

A graduate of the Emory University School of Medicine, Dr. Beless completed his internship and residency in Surgery and Emergency Medicine at Grady Hospital and Emory University Affiliated Hospitals. He is board-certified in Emergency Medicine and has held fellowships with both the American College of Emergency Physicians (FACEP) and the American College of Certified Wound Specialists (FACCWS). Additionally, he is subspecialty board-certified in Undersea and Hyperbaric Medicine by the American Board of Preventive Medicine.

At Hyperbaric Physicians of Georgia, Dr. Beless specializes in using advanced treatments to stimulate wound healing, including Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy (HBOT). This innovative therapy is particularly effective for patients with complex conditions such as tissue previously treated with radiation, osteomyelitis, diabetic ulcers, and compromised surgical wounds. In addition to HBOT, Dr. Beless utilizes other advanced treatments, including negative pressure wound therapy (NPWT), advanced wound medications, and synthetic grafts to enhance healing outcomes.

Dr. Beless's extensive experience and commitment to patient care make him a leading expert in the field of hyperbaric medicine and wound care in Atlanta. The team at Hyperbaric Physicians of Georgia is proud to have him at the helm, ensuring that patients receive the highest standard of care in their journey toward healing.
