

Dr. Svetlana V. Kovtunova, MD, FAAFP, Joins the Ranks of Top Family Medicine Physicians

Experienced Hospitalist and Physician Recognized for Patient-Centered Excellence

Albany, New York Oct 2, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Svetlana V. Kovtunova, MD, FAAFP, a board-certified family medicine physician and seasoned hospitalist, has been recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Top Doctor for her dedication to compassionate, patient-centered care in Albany, New York. Over more than 25 years of practice, she has built a reputation as a trusted clinician and leader, serving communities across multiple states with clinical acumen and an unwavering commitment to healing.

Dr. Kovtunova earned her medical degree with honors from Vinnytsia National Pirogov Memorial Medical University in Ukraine in 1990, subsequently completing residency training in critical care and emergency medicine at the same institution. After relocating to the United States, she completed a family medicine residency at the University at Buffalo and became board-certified in family medicine. Licensed to practice medicine in New York, Florida, and New Hampshire, she contributes her expertise not only in inpatient hospitalist care but also in outpatient settings and community engagements.

At St. Peter's Hospital (part of St. Peter's Health Partners), Dr. Kovtunova serves as a hospitalist, caring for patients with complex medical conditions and coordinating multidisciplinary care to support transitions between inpatient and outpatient settings. Her multilingual background—speaking English, Polish, and Ukrainian—enables her to connect with diverse patient populations and deliver culturally responsive care.

Beyond her clinical duties, Dr. Kovtunova maintains active involvement in the broader medical community. She holds membership in organizations including the Society for Hospital Medicine and the American Academy of Family Physicians, where she contributes to advancing best practices in family and hospital medicine. Her leadership also extends to volunteer efforts—she has contributed time to food banks, homeless shelters, and youth sports and community programs.

As Dr. Kovtunova continues her work, she remains focused on elevating care standards across settings, mentoring emerging clinicians, and bridging gaps between hospital and community health. Her recognition as a Top Doctor underscores her ongoing contributions to medicine, and her commitment to service and excellence serves as an inspiration to healthcare teams and patients alike.
