

Earthdance 2025 Unites Four South African Cities in a Global Dance for Peace

One weekend. One prayer. One global dance for peace.

San Francisco, California Sep 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Earthdance, the world's largest synchronized music and dance event for peace, returns for its 28th year with four vibrant South African locations joining the global celebration. This year's theme, "Dancing Robots: We Come In Peace," invites communities to embrace the fusion of technology, creativity, and unity on the dance floor.

Each location is committed to supporting local causes through music, community, and synchronized intention, all culminating in the global Prayer for Peace broadcast on September 20, 2025.

Earthdance 2025 South Africa Locations

Cape Town

Set against a magnificent mountain backdrop at Kromrivier Farm, Earthdance Cape Town invites festival-goers to experience a truly unique, solar-powered gathering. This year's event promises an immersive weekend filled with world-class performances and transformative workshops. The Sonic Horizon Main Stage will feature 48 hours of nonstop psytrance, while the Mellow Meadow offers a space for downtempo DJs, acoustic musicians, and immersive cinematic art. Festival-goers can also explore the Heart Space Healing Tent, where sound journeys, holistic practices, and massage therapists provide opportunities for deep restoration.

As a fully solar-powered and non-profit initiative, the festival channels 50% of its proceeds to Envirochild NPC, an environmental development project dedicated to empowering youth and communities with creative environmental education.

Gardenroute

Nestled in the heart of the Gardenroute at Karoo 62, Earthdance Gardenroute promises a soulful gathering filled with good people, good hearts, good intentions, and groovy basslines. This outdoor venue will come alive with a multi-genre lineup, massive stages, professional sound and lighting, lush camping areas, and refreshing swimming pools.

True to Earthdance's spirit of giving back, this year's event proudly supports Rosemore Home for the Elderly, helping to abundantly enrich the lives of those who call it home.

Johannesburg

Earthdance Johannesburg will be held at the vibrant Fun Valley Pleasure Resort just outside the city. This year's event will feature a multi-genre lineup across massive stages, creating an unforgettable atmosphere for festival-goers. Beyond the music, attendees can experience a dedicated healing space with facilitators and activities, relax in multiple swimming pools, and enjoy both lush camping areas and VIP glamping options.

All passes include free shaded camping, while those seeking additional comfort may book chalets, VIP tents, or TentNation packages directly through Fixr. Located just steps from the music, the resort's chalets offer the perfect retreat to rest, recharge, and return to the dance floor feeling refreshed.

In keeping with Earthdance's mission of giving back, Johannesburg's event will proudly support Children of Fire, a South African nonprofit dedicated to providing care and advocacy for young burn survivors.

Nelson Mandela Bay

Celebrating its 16th year, Earthdance Nelson Mandela Bay returns to the scenic Wacky Woods Riverside Resort, a private riverside venue known for its natural beauty and commitment to conservation. This year, the event will support Jehovah Jireh Haven, a registered non-profit dedicated to providing safety and care for vulnerable children in Alexandria, Eastern Cape.

Attendees are invited to bring donations of children's clothes, toys, and food to drop off at the festival gate, extending the spirit of peace and compassion beyond the dance floor and into the local community.

Global Connection: The Prayer for Peace

All four locations will synchronize with Earthdance's Global Prayer for Peace, taking place on September 20, 2025 at 4:00 PM PST / 1 AM SAST. This moment unites participants across 13 Earthdance locations worldwide, creating a powerful wave of collective intention for peace and healing.

The prayer will also be streamed live through RadioCave's Youtube channel, where viewers around the world are encouraged to tune in.

A Movement

For nearly three decades, Earthdance has been more than a festival, it's a movement. With the 28th anniversary in 2025, Earthdance continues to expand its mission: to build bridges between cultures, social activism, and humanitarian causes, uniting hearts and minds under the call to "Give Peace a Dance."

The Earthdance Marketplace

In addition to live events, Earthdance introduces the Earthdance Market, a new platform for conscious creators to showcase eco-friendly fashion, jewelry, art, and designs. By supporting the marketplace, attendees contribute to global sustainability efforts while discovering unique, ethical goods from artisans around the world.
