FurGPT (FGPT) Prepares Token Launch to Transform Digital Companionship

The upcoming FGPT token release will expand engagement and fuel the next era of AI-powered companionship in Web3.

Seattle, Washington Sep 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - FurGPT (FGPT), the AI-powered platform pioneering digital companionship in Web3, announced preparations for its highly anticipated token launch. This milestone introduces new opportunities for community engagement, decentralized governance, and utility-driven innovation across the FurGPT ecosystem.

The FGPT token will serve as the foundation of the platform, powering advanced features such as adaptive interaction layers, personalized companion behavior, and ecosystem participation. By enabling holders to access premium tools, stake tokens, and influence governance, the launch aligns FurGPT's AI-driven model with the principles of decentralization and community control.

With its emphasis on lifelike interaction, multimodal intelligence, and cross-platform consistency, FurGPT is redefining what it means to engage with AI companions. The token launch represents the next step in building a vibrant digital ecosystem where users shape the evolution of companion AI while benefiting from its growth.

About FurGPT
