

Gorgeous Cover Model & Actress Aria Walton Models for MAYKL at London Fashion Week and gets Praised by Designer.

London, United Kingdom Sep 29, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Gorgeous cover model and actress Aria Walton was among the models who walked the runway for the brand MAYKL, by Croatian designer Mihaela Stimac Rojtnic, at London Fashion Week.

For the Fall 2025 ready-to-wear MAYKL collection, Walton modeled a backless green and silver corset that highlighted the model's toned figure and slim but voluminous silhouette, paired with wavy green trousers with asymmetrical fabrics that the model knew how to professionally showcase on the runway.

MAYKL creates unique fashion pieces that combine elegance and avant-garde details. Her work is based on exploring contemporary cuts, carefully selected materials, and functionality. Maykl is a high-fashion brand offering multifunctional pieces, ideal for people who want to experiment with fashion. Stimac Rojtnic is known for designing her creations by hand, with each piece reflecting her artistic vision and dedication to haute couture. Her inspiration comes from various aspects of life, including technical skills gained through her family's optical tradition and her love for sports. She creates pieces that celebrate real women of different body types, and her future includes expanding the brand and working on the global fashion scene.

Walton's impeccable performance on the runway was praised by the designer, who wrote to her on social media and said: "you definitely looked the best in all the photos — the whole walk, the whole energy — and I'm so glad you were a part of my team and wore my creations. You're phenomenal!"

The fashion show took place at the stunning Waldorf Astoria Hilton hotel in London. In attendance were fashion connoisseurs, celebrities, and reality TV stars, like Sabrina Vittoria Egerton, who filmed and showcased Walton's praised performance on the runway to all her followers on social media.

Walton takes the modeling craft very seriously and takes great pride in all the hard work necessary to prepare for such big events in the fashion industry, like achieving modeling on the runway at London Fashion Week.

She is known to share her process with her almost a million followers on Instagram. Such a process looks like training with the best runway coaches in Colombia or her fitness routine and working on her runway posture with celebrity personal trainer Luke Worthington, who has trained actors like Dakota Johnson and Ellie Bamber, athletes like Daniel Cipriani, models like Winnie Harlow, and now also model and actress Aria Walton, in London. Walton continues to prove she is a force to be reckoned with in the fashion industry.
