iBidd Launches New Mobile Website with Full Auction Capabilities for Q4

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Dover, Delaware. October 2025. "iBidd Lives Up to Its Name" says Founder Charles Paul. iBidd, the groundbreaking AI-powered global marketplace, proudly announces the launch of its brand-new mobile-optimized website complete with full Auction capabilities, just in time for Q4.

"We promised auctions and liquidation for Q4, and we delivered," says Charles Paul, Founder of iBidd. "This release is the next major step in our software evolution empowering users and brands alike."

Introducing the Auction Category

The long-awaited Auction category is now live. Sellers can now list products, services, or even entire business inventory in just seconds, directly from the web or your mobile devices, including iOS, Android, or tablets like the Apple iPad. No complicated setup, no friction just list and go.

This new functionality supports: Real-time bidding, Instant buy-it-now options, Video Ads and linkbacks, Listing via credits or Affiliate and Social Co-Branding subscriptions. Each new user receives 100 free credits upon a simple account creation, no payment or credit card needed, making it easy to get started.

Liquidation Tools Coming Next

With Liquidation Listings launching next month, iBidd is building a full suite of tools for retailers, wholesalers, and brands to clear inventory, manage returns, and liquidate assets with unprecedented ease.

One Seamless Mobile Experience

The upgraded mobile web version makes using iBidd faster and more intuitive than ever. Just open your browser, list an item, and you're live. iOS and Android are still available for those who enjoy App's.

This is all part of iBidd's mission to provide a seamless, low fee, AI-powered Global marketplace accessible anywhere in the world, from any device.

Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) Now Available

In addition to its Global marketplace, iBidd is offering its proprietary software as a SaaS licensing solution for businesses and brands who want to integrate auction, liquidation, or promotional tools into their own platforms.

"Whether you want to use our platform or license our engine, iBidd has you covered," says Paul. "From powerful AI video ads to linkbacks and banner placement we're changing the way the world transacts."
