

Janise Tinsman: A Leader in Nursing Education and Patient Care at the University of Texas - El Paso

Transforming Lives Through Compassionate Care and Dedicated Leadership

El Paso, Texas Sep 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The University of Texas - El Paso (UTEP) proudly recognizes Janise Tinsman, Director and Clinical Assistant Professor of Nursing, for her outstanding contributions to nursing education and patient care in the El Paso community. With a rich background in nursing and a commitment to enhancing patient quality of life, Tinsman is an invaluable asset to UTEP and the broader medical field.

With over three decades of experience, Tinsman has dedicated her career to improving the lives of her patients. Her educational journey began with a Practical Nursing Certificate in 1986, followed by an Associate of Science in Nursing in 1991. Tinsman furthered her education by obtaining a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Arkansas in 2008, a Master of Science in Nursing from Liberty University in 2016, and culminating with a Doctor of Nursing Practice from Liberty University in 2019. This extensive training has equipped her with the knowledge and skills necessary to lead and inspire both students and patients alike.

Tinsman's approach to nursing embodies the core values of communication, safety, and trust. She believes that effective communication is crucial for establishing trust with patients, which in turn fosters a safe and supportive environment for healing. Her dedication to these principles has earned her a respected reputation among colleagues and students at UTEP, where she consistently leads by example.

In addition to her clinical role, Tinsman is an active member of several professional societies, including Sigma Theta Tau, the American Nurses Association, and the Texas Nurses Association. These affiliations reflect her commitment to lifelong learning and professional development, enhancing her ability to influence the next generation of nursing professionals.

When asked about her success, Tinsman attributes it to her unwavering belief in herself and her determination to pursue her goals relentlessly. "Success is not just about achieving accolades; it's about making a difference in the lives of others," she states.

As UTEP continues to be a beacon of excellence in nursing education, Janise Tinsman stands out as a leader who is dedicated to shaping the future of healthcare in El Paso and beyond.
