

Jessica L. Latham, RN, BSN, MSN, AGPCNP-C: Compassionate nurse practitioner specializing in adult and geriatric care.

Delivering Compassionate Care Across Multiple Mercy Clinic Spine and Pain Management Locations

Wentzville, Missouri Sep 10, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Mercy Health is proud to announce the addition of Jessica L. Latham, RN, BSN, MSN, AGPCNP-C, to its esteemed team of healthcare professionals. Specializing in geriatric medicine, Jessica brings extensive experience as a Registered Nurse and Board-Certified Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner, with a deep commitment to improving the lives of seniors in the community.

Jessica has joined Mercy Clinic Spine and Pain Management, providing her expertise across multiple locations, including Washington, Clayton-Clarkson, Winding Woods, and 1165 East Cherry. Her affiliation with Mercy Hospital Washington further enhances her ability to deliver comprehensive, high-quality care, ensuring patients benefit from a holistic approach to health and wellness.

Jessica's academic journey is impressive and diverse. After graduating from Heidelberg American High School, she pursued her Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice at Lindenwood University. Her passion for nursing led her to Chamberlain University, where she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Jessica continued her education at Chamberlain College of Nursing, completing the Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program and earning her Master of Science in Nursing in 2010. She further advanced her specialization at Maryville University School of Professional Health Careers, completing another Master's Degree with a focus on Adult-Gerontology Nurse Practitioner from 2012 to 2015.

Known for her teamwork, punctuality, and strong communication skills, Jessica prioritizes compassionate, patient-centered care. Fluent in English and German, she embraces cultural diversity, connecting effectively with a broad range of patients and families. Her commitment to ongoing professional development underscores her passion for excellence in nursing and delivering safe, attentive, and personalized care.

With Jessica L. Latham joining Mercy Health, patients and families can expect expert guidance, exceptional service, and a dedicated partner in their healthcare journey.
