

M-Kube Enterprise Pty Ltd Launches Digital Cooking Oil Tester for Accurate Oil Quality Testing and TPM Monitoring

M-Kube Enterprise Pty Ltd launches its advanced digital cooking oil tester, offering accurate oil quality testing and TPM monitoring. Designed for foodservice and industrial kitchens, this cooking oil test kit ensures safety, and compliance.

Adelaide , South Australia Sep 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - M-Kube Enterprise Pty Ltd, a leading provider of innovative testing solutions, has announced the launch of its advanced Cooking Oil Tester designed to ensure accuracy, safety, and efficiency in frying oil monitoring. As rising concerns about food quality and safety drive global demand, the company's cooking oil test kit range provides precise oil quality testing with user-friendly technology.

Reliable Testing with Advanced Digital Technology

The new digital cooking oil tester enables chefs, foodservice operators, and quality inspectors to monitor frying oil performance in real time. With the ability to measure Total Polar Materials (TPM), the TPM oil tester ensures compliance with international safety standards while helping businesses extend oil life and reduce waste.

Product Highlights

- Cooking Oil Testing Kit: Portable, accurate, and easy to use in commercial kitchens.
- Frying Oil Quality Tester: Delivers instant results to determine when oil should be replaced.
