Maria Gillette: A Trusted Realtor and Community Advocate in Lexington, Kentucky

Lexington, Kentucky Sep 25, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Maria Gillette, a distinguished Realtor and Team Leader with Building The Bluegrass Realty, is making waves in the Lexington real estate market, offering unparalleled guidance to both buyers and sellers. With a strong commitment to her clients, Maria navigates every step of the real estate transaction process, from negotiations to contract execution, ensuring that each client feels supported and informed.

Holding an active real estate license in Kentucky and affiliated with BLUEGRASS REALTORS® and KENTUCKY REALTORS®, Maria brings over a decade of experience in architecture and real estate from both New York City and Lexington. This unique background allows her to specialize in new construction, renovations, and identifying value opportunities that empower clients to make well-informed decisions. Maria particularly enjoys educating her clients on how real estate can be a significant avenue for building generational wealth, a value she passionately instills within her own family.

Maria's extensive experience has provided her with a profound understanding of the housing market and the positive impact that thoughtful development can have on communities. She prides herself on her clear communication style, simplifying complex real estate processes to help clients confidently navigate the buying, selling, or investing journey. Her reputation as a trusted advisor has been pivotal to her success as a Realtor.

Maria's direct and transparent communication, combined with the strong relationships she cultivates through referrals from satisfied clients, underscores her dedication to excellence. Moreover, she is committed to giving back to her community by donating a portion of her profits each quarter to local organizations, reinforcing her investment in the well-being of Lexington. Maria appreciates the vibrant qualities of Lexington, including its affordable living, robust job market, excellent schools, and expanding parks and green spaces, all of which contribute to the city's appeal.

On a personal note, Maria is a proud mother of two, Sofia (6) and Enzo (2), a total foodie, and an avid world traveler. Her diverse interests and experiences enrich her approach to real estate, making her a versatile and empathetic advocate for her clients.
